Crack western lightweight, w eight Stanley Yelkum, the Beaver fighter, a twenty-round bout in Denver tomorrow night. Immediately after the fight, White will go to San Francisco to meet Lightweight Azevedo twenty rounds on August 7.

Young Dison of Cleveland, R. I., and Dick Stoss of Cleveland will meet in the main bout at the Olympic A. C. of Harlem to-night. In another bout, Heavyweight Dave Cross, young-tack brother Lightweight Larry, will tackle Jack Midway of Tonkers.

Marty Brown and Jack Doyle, the local fighters, have been matched to meet in a ten-round contest at the next boxing show of the Hergentons, to-night. The club officials have decided to have a "tryout night" on Wednesday evening.

With Jack McAuliffe teaching him how to hit straight and Joe Walcott as sparring partner, Battling Jimmie will have a much harder fight when they meet in their ten-round bout at the Stadium A. C. show on Wednesday night, when he boxes him at the same club nearly two Thoroughly convinced now that he cannot come back to big Al Kaufman, the California heavyweight, has announced his retirement from the ring. Al tried his hand at the four-round game in San Francisco last Friday night and was knocked out in fifteen seconds by Tom McMahon, the Pittsburgh heavyweight.

Eddie Moy, the fairly clever lightweight of Pennsylvania, who acted as sporting partner for Freddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, before the latter returned to England, has been signed up to meet Frankie Thompson, the California lightweight, for fifteen rounds at Oakland, Cal., on Wednesday night.

PACKEY M'FARLAND WEDS.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago boxer, was quietly married yesterday to Miss Margaret Loughran, the heiress of the late M. F. Loughran, wealthy brewer and banker of Joliet, at St. Mary's Church. There is a possibility of the couple extending their honeymoon for a trip around the world.

"As a wedding gift to my wife," am going to present her with the lightest and most beautiful of the world as soon as I can get in touch with Freddie Welsh," said Packey last night. "I beat him twice and then Freddie has no reason to believe that I cannot do it again."

McLoughlin has taken Mr. Loughlin's place as a director of the Porter Brewing Company of Joliet and will have charge of several of the Loughlin interests.

turne, Boone reaching second. Caldwell struck out. Hartzell forced Caldwell, Blackburne to Weaver, and on the latter's wild throw Boone reached first. Hartzell and Hartzell reached second. Breton threw out Peekinpaugh. ONE RUN.

FOURTH INNING.—Hartzell made a miscalculation and threw away his chance of Collins' long drive. Caldwell followed out Fournier. Mayer threw out Bodie. NO RUNS.

FIFTH INNING.—Mayer sacrificed. Fournier to Fournier. Caldwell flied out to Bodie. Nunamaker scored a single to right and Cree scored. Nunamaker was out stealing. Mayer to Blackburne. NO RUNS.

SIXTH INNING.—Mayer walked. Breton forced Mayer. Peck to Boone, but in attempting a double play, Peck hit the wall and threw his first base ball. Breton went to first. Schalk batted for Faber. Schalk flied out to Cree and Cree's perfect throw to the plate picked up Breton at the plate. NO RUNS.

SEVENTH INNING.—Faber in the bus for Chicago. Mayer struck out and Peck flied out. Bodie poked out. Caldwell flied out. Fournier. Mayer struck out. Hartzell flied out to Blackburne. NO RUNS.

EIGHTH INNING.—

Bremer Outplayed Farrell.
Knookout Sweeney defeated Mike Farrell in a hard bout at the Stadium A. C. Club house where the crowd pretty well packed up as it came down from the game.

The Highlanders can draw enough spectators to fill the park without resorting to any publicity system. In the past it has been considered one of the privileges of the manager to withhold the names of players who were to appear last minute, and that privilege has always been respected.

Jimmy Callahan was never more surprised in his life than when the Highlanders beat him after the White Sox had got away to a four-run lead in the eighth inning. The game was Cleveland series, Chance and his men invaded through the White Sox as Jimmy's men had seen the fact that they would have no chance of winning or not, all visitors look alike to the Yanks nowadays.

According to the latest batting records, the Giants have a new entry in the .300 class—the last man you would expect to see there. The German gentleman in question is none other than Arthur Fromme. He is hitting .308 and has driven in a good percentage of runs.

Cree didn't get here in time to see the compilation of averages for the season by the leading league newspapers. In the first place his average was better than that of either Cobb or Speaker.

FIFTH RACE.
Reno won the fifth race, after a wonderful performance. Last around the first turn he was in the outside to get into a contending position. She came to the stretch lapped on Yodeling and Lohengrin, the pace-makers.
As they straightened for the run home Reno easily moved away from her company. She had to be shaken up in the last eighth, but she won without mishap.
Tay Pay fairly flew through the stretch and catching the rest of them beat Lohengrin three lengths for the place. She was run up from $400 to $1,500 by Joe Lemire and bid in by her owner.
